

...Travel

(Continued from Page 1) should be encouraged to attend them, he said, if they can spare the time away from their work.

BEASLEY, WHO cast the only dissenting vote, agreed that convention attendance boosted the city of Torrance, but did not feel that Lyman's suggested study was necessary at this time.

Councilman Ross A. Sciarrotta Sr. flatly denied that councilmen are spending too much on travel expenses and said he was provoked at abuse charges because these charges give the people the false impression that City Council members are "spendthrifts."

Beverly Appointed to Municipal Committee

Assemblyman Robert G. Beverly, (R-46th District) has been appointed by Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh to the Municipal and County Government Committee of the State Assembly.

Beverly has extensive experience in municipal government, having served for nine years as councilman and mayor of Manhattan Beach and as a city attorney of four Los Angeles County cities. He also participated actively in the League of California Cities and recently concluded a term of office as president of the Los Angeles County Division of the League.

"I requested this appointment," Beverly stated, "inasmuch as one of my primary aims in the State Legislature is to work toward the strengthening of local government and to prevent further encroachment on the authority of cities and counties by state and federal government."

The Committee will hold hearings in San Francisco November 9 and 10 and in Los Angeles November 20 and 30 to consider local revenue needs and revenue sources.

In addition to his appointment to the Municipal and County Government Committee, Assemblyman Beverly serves on the Finance and Insurance Committee and the Retirement Systems Committee.

CARPET PRICES GOING UP

New York City, Aug. 28 — With recently announced increases in prices of synthetic carpet fibers topping off their rising prices of raw materials, labor costs, freight and other operating expenses, carpet manufacturers for the past several weeks were expected to come through with increases of their own on finished products.

Today, the three carpet divisions of Mohasco Industries — Mohawk, Alexander Smith and Firth — broke the ice and announced price increases of 3 to 7% on selected grades effective Sept. 5. Contract grades are also being increased.

There is little question but what prices will be increased on an industry-wide basis.

Bigelow Acts

New York City, Aug. 28 — Bigelow-Sanford, Inc., will increase its line, effective September 11, Robert R. Fentress, executive vice president, announced today.

Lees Ups Prices

Because of cost increases throughout all segments of its operations, Lees Carpet will adjust its prices on selected carpet grades ranging up to approximately 5%, effective September 18. The company noted that this increase is the last upward adjustment of prices in several years.

Magee

New York City, Aug. 30 — Because of increased costs of labor, raw materials and freight, the Magee Carpet Co. will adjust its prices on selected carpet qualities ranging from 3 to 7%, effective Sept. 18.
